

1st International Audiovisual Competition "Città di Garda"

Patronage FIAF 13AVF01 – FIAP 2013/128

Regulation

1. Preamble

The competition aims to promote and reward the culture of quality International Audiovisual, a particularly creative and complete photographic discipline.

The competition is open to authors from around the world whether they belong to a club or Federation or not. All sequences submitted will be seen by the official jury. No pre-selection will be made. The official jury will determine acceptances, the three main prizes and any references or special prizes at its discretion.

2. Sequences to be considered

An audiovisual is a presentation that combines photographic images, sound and sometimes a text: the photographic image is its key feature. Screen video inserts (partial or whole screen) are allowed if strictly functional to the story and are not more prevalent than single photographic images during the sequence.

The synergy between images and soundtrack is left to the author's creativity but the sequence must be harmoniously integrated with its own script and dynamic communication.

The subject is free and all audiovisuals will be evaluated by the jury regardless of categories.

3. Characteristics of the sequences

Each author may submit up to three sequences, each lasting no more than 12 minutes. The sequences must have been produced in the last three years (from 2010 included). Modern digital reconstructions of older works are not allowed. Audiovisuals with spoken text must necessarily be accompanied by the author's summary in English, or French or Italian. The author can provide a summary in one only language, in this case, the organization can provide for the best possible translation into other languages to facilitate the understanding of the public and the jury, declining any responsibility for a possible distortion of the meaning of the text of the author.
